

CITIES going wild

CATHERINE BARR
CHRISTIANE ENGEL

Otter-Barry BOOKS
www.otterbarrbooks.com

QUIZ

1. People living in cities: tick the truths

- A. More than half the people in the world live in cities
- B. About the same number of people live in cities as in rural areas
- C. Less people live in cities than in the rural areas
- D. The number of people moving to cities is growing

2. What are bird-friendly windows?

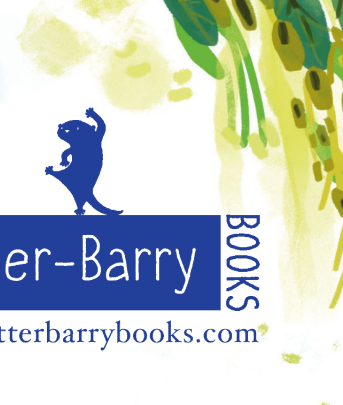

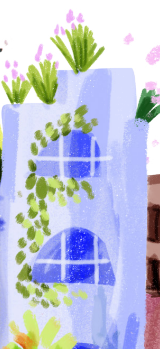

- A. Windows that encourage birds to fly up to spy in
- B. Windows without glass
- C. Glass with special marks so birds don't fly into them
- D. Reflective glass windows

3. What is a sponge city?

- A. A city selling lots of sponges
- B. A city with bouncy roads and paths
- C. A city with lots of places to wash with sponges
- D. A city with lots of wetland places to soak up rainwater

4. Describe a living seawall

- A. A climbing wall in the sea
- B. A harbour wall with artificial habitats to encourage sea-life
- C. A mystery wall in the middle of the sea
- D. A concrete wall on the coast washed by the sea

5. How can you encourage wildlife in the city?

- A. Plant a window box
- B. Cover your garden with concrete
- C. Do a rain dance
- D. Hang up a bird feeder

6. What is a green roof?

- A. A roof that is painted green
- B. A roof that has gone mouldy
- C. A roof that is planted to encourage wildlife
- D. A roof that flashes different colours in the sun

7. How can you encourage bees in cities?

- A. Leave lots of pots of honey outside
- B. Plant bee-friendly flowers
- C. Encourage your school to build a bug hotel!
- D. Run around making buzz noises

8. How do beavers change the landscape?

- A. They are super strong and rip up pavements
- B. They are tidy gardeners and keep green spaces neat
- C. They build dams on streams and create wetlands
- D. They create watery habitats for wildlife

9. Where can you grow food in a city?

- A. On the walls of buildings
- B. In window boxes
- C. In community gardens
- D. In roadside verges

10. Why is nature important in cities

- A. Trees keep cities cool
- B. Living close to nature brings people joy
- C. Nature makes people wealthier
- D. Nature helps keep cities clean and tidy

ANSWERS: 1. A & D, 2. C, 3. D, 4. B, 5. A & D, 6. C, 7. B & C, 8. C & D, 9. A & B & C & D, 10. A & B

